

LEADERSHIP ADVANCE

a coaching retreat that moves you forward

In today's whitewater world of constant change and competing commitments, knowing exactly what activities will bear the most fruit while sustaining your energy is not obvious.

That's where good coaching comes in.

Led by seasoned leadership coaches Chad Hall (PCC) and Bill Copper (ACC), Leadership Advance provides two full days of coaching to help you gain clarity about:

Your Fingerprint Design

Knowing the unique way you're wired helps you leverage your strengths so you can work smarter, not harder.

Your Wildly Important Goals

Identifying the two or three outcomes that make all the difference - so you can focus your efforts and maximize results.

Your 3-D Action Plan

An action plan built on the three dimensions needed for true success.

If you want to identify what's next and get a realistic plan for moving toward it, you are a great fit for Leadership Advance.
